Last year we introduced the first Menu-chair ever. A beautiful and simple, three-legged one, designed by the Stockholm-based, Afterroom.

The chair proved to be one of our most popular designs from the SS13 collection, so for the AW14 we're adding another chair to the line up: The Afterroom Barstool. The same innovative and clean design as Afterroom Chair – but with longer legs.

The tall Afterroom Barstool is perfect as an extra chair in the kitchen, as the beautiful front row of a bar area or as the new and striking chairs in the office waiting. The chairs are both light, comfortable and durable.

Hung-Ming Chen and Chen-Yen Wei get their inspiration from an intriguing interest of forms, senses, proportions, materials and cultures. And with a clear and non-compromising aesthetic vision, they take the meaning of simplistic design to a whole new level.

“The Afterroom Chair and Afterroom Barstool are a homage to Bauhaus and functionalism. The simplicity of its design combined with the quality of materials is what's important. We embraced the challenge of designing something minimalistic with clean lines, without in any way compromise its comfort. In that sense we've looked towards classic Scandinavian features as
